Job Description

Make self-service accessible to millions. Help us sell the technology that does it.

Storm Interface is the world-leading manufacturer of accessible self-service interface devices. Our products are trusted by global brands and deployed across a wide range of industries, such as transportation, retail, hospitality and public-sector environments worldwide.

We're growing our international sales team and need a pro-active, organised, and commercially minded Sales & Marketing Coordinator to be the engine room of our global sales operation.

What you'll own:

- Preparing and sending quotes, proposals, and contracts for international clients with precision
- Managing and maintaining CRM records so the team always has clean, actionable data
- Qualifying inbound leads and routing them to the right regional sales rep
- Coordinating demos, sample requests, trade event logistics, and sales meetings
- Tracking order status and proactively communicating with customers across time zones
- Producing sales reports, forecasts, and presentations for leadership review
- Collaborating with marketing to keep collateral, product specs, and materials current

Requirements

Essential

- 2–3+ years in sales support, sales coordination, or B2B customer service
- Confident CRM user, HubSpot preferred
- Strong written and verbal communicator, you're the voice of the team
- Highly organised, detail-oriented, and calm under pressure
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook)

Bonus points for

- Experience supporting international or multi-regional sales teams
- A second language (in our target markets)
- Familiarity with accessibility tech, assistive devices, or IT hardware
- Knowledge of order management systems

Benefits

- Salary range £28,000–£30,000 (depending on experience)
- A genuine mission, products that make a real difference to people's lives
- Hybrid working from our Langley HQ, or fully remote for the right UK-based candidate
- Occasional domestic and international travel to events
- Being part of a small team with a big impact
- Opportunity for growth within the company

Storm Interface is an equal opportunities employer. We celebrate the diversity of people, just like the users our products are built for.
